WEST COAST SIKH YOUTH ALLIANCE (1994-2004)

SIKH YOUTH SUMMER CAMP 2004

MISSION

As the youth of the Sikh community, we have experienced many of the trials and tribulations associated with growing up in Western society. We feel that it is our obligation to strengthen and develop the identity and heritage of the Sikh Youth. Through the effective technique of youth teaching youth, the West Coast Sikh Youth Alliance (WCSYA) devotes itself to creating a confident new generation of high-spirited Sikhs.

OBJECTIVE

The WCSYA openly invites all youth to attend its tenth annual Sikh Youth Summer Camp from August 27 to September 3, 2004. The participants will be split up into three age groups, 10-12 years old, 13-18 years old and 18 to 25 years old in order to create a comfortable learning atmosphere. We will provide a positive and beneficial environment in which Sikh Youth will be able to implement the fundamentals of Sikhi into their daily lives. Our primary goal is to inspire young Sikh minds and to enlighten them to the beauty of our faith. We use a western approach to expose participants to the Sikh way of life by means of interactive discussions, workshops, and religious darbars.

LOCATION

Situated in the heart of the beautiful, all natural Oyama, near Kelowna, British Columbia, this year's Sikh Youth Summer Camp will be held at Camp Hatikvah. Amidst a brilliant landscape, this setting will provide a spiritual atmosphere that will enrich the learning process of the campers. There will be a lodge in which morning and evening darbars as well as workshops will be held. Breakfast, lunch, and dinner will be served in a large common dining hall, and the campers will enjoy the comfort of sleeping in cabins.

ACTIVITIES

Located near the City of Kelowna, Camp Hatikvah is ideal for various recreational activities. We will take advantage of our beautiful, all natural surroundings by organizing activities such as hiking, tubing, boating, canoeing, swimming, and paintball. There will be a large field for group activities and sports including soccer, basketball, floor hockey and paintball. At the end of each day, everyone will gather around a campfire to wind down and relax by singing songs and sharing stories.

FEES

For participants between the ages of 10-12 there is a $200 fee and for participants between the ages of 13 - 25, there is a $250 fee for each child. This will cover the cost of the campers' lodging, meals, transportation, lectures, and recreational rentals.

If you register after July 31, 2004 you will be charged an additional $25.00.

THIS FEE IS NON REFUNDABLE
